Creating a “Speak-Up” Culture for Youth in OST

This training will focus on how to create an inclusive culture for all children and youth. We will explore implicit biases and how they can shape our perspective. Learn ways to build on the notion of “if you see something, say something” to create an accepting culture of community. Language and strategies that support open conversation and open mindedness will be explored. Concepts around staff identify, race, and culture will be addressed. Don’t miss this opportunity to further understand the importance of creating a safe and encouraging culture for the children and youth in your out of schooltime program. Presented by Jaime Calcagni Salagaj; NH ASMP WT

How to Get and Keep the Staff You Want

Working with children is your passion but running a business may not be. A strong business will support your goals of providing the highest quality of care to children by creating stability for your program and protecting your resources. This session will cover recruiting, conducting interviews, hiring, orientation, and evaluating staff performance. Learn the importance of designing a framework for building an effective orientation plan for new employees. Become familiar with the components of a staff handbook. Identify strategies for providing feedback to employees. We will also examine the importance of the Leadership in staff retention. Participants can request individualized technical assistance after completing this training. This training is one of a collection of trainings: “ACROSS NH: Strengthening Your Business Practices.” Presented by Bobi White, M.Ed.; NH ECMP WT, PC, F & ASMP WT, PC, F and Leadership Level 5

SESSION TWO 11:00AM-1:00PM

Choose one of the following trainings:

Afterschool Basics: Relationships and Interactions with Children and Youth

Quality relationships and communication are key attributes of quality practice when working with children and youth. These enhance our ability to form the connections necessary to provide positive guidance to those who attend our programs. This training looks at these two components and at our role as youth development professionals in positive behavior guidance. Presented by Kimberly O’Donnell, M.S.; NH ASMP WT, IM, PC

Child Care Licensing Information & Using the NH Connections Website: School Age Edition

Come to this session for a walk-through with child care licensing staff on NHCIS for Background Record Checks.
